

OPP Teaching Resources Policy

Purpose

- The purpose of this policy is to ensure that all students respect the law and the rights of owners when it comes to the handling of teaching resources.

Policy

- Students may not acquire teaching resources through illegal means. They will either be provided with relevant materials or directed as to where they might acquire them.
- Students may not copy or distribute any given teaching resources, unless given express permission by the document(s)'s author.
- Students may not record, capture, or photograph any lecture, workshop or learning resource without express permission from the author or speaker.
